Instructions for preparation of one-page
Abstract for 4th Central European Biomedical Congress, Kraków 2020

First A. Author¹, Second B. Author², Third C. Author³

¹Maj Institute of Pharmacology, Polish Academy of Sciences, Kraków, Poland
²Faculty of Medicine, Jagiellonian University Medical College, Kraków, Poland
³Medical University of Lublin, Lublin, Poland

Authors are invited to submit electronically a one-page abstract through the Congress website before 31 March, 2020. The abstract must be written in Calibri font, 12-point size, single space and justified with the exceptions of the title (14pt), affiliations (10pt in Italic). Authors should choose one main topic from the categorization: (1) Clinical trials; (2) Preclinical studies; (3) Other topics.

Body text should be divided for 5 sections at the beginning of the head: Background; Material and methods; Results; Conclusions and Acknowledgements with separate single space. The title should be concise and clearly indicate the content. It should contain no more than 180 characters and accurately describe the character.

The abstract must contain author’s surname before listing the initial letters of names; initials and surnames for every author must be provided do not include degrees or titles.

The affiliations should be typed under the list of authors' names and each author should be listed by institution, city, state/province and country do not include department, division, laboratory, etc. In abstracts where the authors have different affiliations, please indicate for each author the number of the corresponding affiliation – use a superscript. It should not exceed 2500 characters, tables and graphs are not accepted.

Abstracts will be reproduced exactly as submitted and will not be edited in any way. The Scientific Committee has authority to re-categorise the abstract. The Scientific Committee reserves the right to reject abstracts submitted in poor English, or request an immediate revision by the author. Abstracts submitted by graduate students and PhD students will be considered for selection of a 10-min oral presentation.